

Eteri Club Puts On Campaign for Large Membership

The Eteri Club met last Saturday evening at the Methodist Church, with a good attendance. The Eteri girls have started a drive for new members. Two teams have been organized. Evelyn Perkin is captain of the Greens, and Mildred Pannier of the Reds. There is keen competition between the teams, and many new members are assured. The losers will give a party for the winners.

Next Saturday night is "Mothers' Night." All mothers and friends of Eteri girls are invited to attend the meeting, to be held at Central Evangelical Hall at 8 o'clock.

A supper, served gratis, will be followed by a musical program and a short address.

Special pre-Easter services will be held at the Christian Church each night next week except Saturday. Rev. Lambeth Hancock of San Dimas will speak at these especially arranged services.

Seek Bids for Santa Fe Track Across Anaheim

One more step toward the entrance of the Santa Fe railroad to Los Angeles harbor was taken this week when the Los Angeles city council approved a notice advertising for bids for the construction of a standard gauge track across Anaheim street to connect with the municipal belt line.

This action was in line with the agreement reached between the Harbor Commission, the city council of Los Angeles, and the harbor line.

BURGLARS GET $400

Goods taken from J. Isenstein's store at the pueblo last Saturday night were of an estimated value of $400. The thieves broke through a rear window. Dry goods, groceries and paints were stolen.

Masonic Lodge Public Schools Week in April

Annual Observance Is Set This Year for April 26 to 30

SAN FRANCISCO.—The dates for the seventh annual observance of Public Schools Week by the Masonic Grand Lodge of California were announced here by Grand Master Albert E. Boynton on Monday, April 26, to April 30. At the same time the committee was announced to have general charge of the week over the state. Separate committees will have charge of the week's activities in the various communities of the state.

Originally instituted as a Masonic function, programs being held in the lodge rooms, interest gradually increased in the annual celebration until last year school auditoriums and public halls were used and the general public invited. The meetings will be open to the general public again this year.

In the proclamation issued today, setting the dates for the week, Grand Master Boynton stated that the primary object of the week was to afford the public in general and parents in particular an opportunity to become informed on the real condition of our public schools, what the schools are aiming to do, and the problems confronting those entrusted with the control of school affairs and the training of children.

Entertainments and tableaux featuring school children were an important part of the programs last year and will be repeated in many communities this year, with leading educators and laymen versed in school matters as speakers.

The general committee for the state is as follows: Charles Albert Adams, chairman; Vaughan McCaughey, secretary; Arthur Chamberlain, Wesley W. Kegan, Elias Ellison, of San Francisco; Robert A. Odell, Worling Kersey, Harry S. Lasker, Leo T. Muller, of Los Angeles; Arthur M. Brown, Pasadena; Fred M. Hunter, Oakland; and Roy Cloud, Redwood City.

Four Fined; Two Are Sent to Jail

Fines aggregating $500 were paid in the justice court during the past week by four out-of-town violators of the Wright act.

Two other violators were unable to pay the fines of $300 and $350, and commitments were issued.

Miss Jewel Payton and Cliff Sprague motored to Pixley over the weekend. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Ketchell. Saturday evening they attended a grand ball at Porterville.
